

SCAVENGER HUNT

It's time to dive right in and get your feet wet! Your first Earth Trails Productions assignment is to have some fun and familiarize yourself with the way we work. So hit the road and answer these questions.

ANSWERS

1. YOU'VE GOT MAIL

(Answers may vary.)
ABCs are: always state your opinion clearly, back up your opinion with facts and examples, and connect your ideas through logic and reasoning. The Four Cornerstones of Quality are: mechanics, content accuracy, media selection, and content organization.

2. AHOY MATEY

(Answers may vary.)
Navigation is difficult. Shipping requires many different boat pilots. The Port of New Orleans is one of the busiest shipping terminals in the world.

3. SING ALONG

Respect your elders.

4. FULL SPEED AHEAD

(Answers may vary.) The pitfalls were collisions, snags that tore holes in the hull, fires, and dangerous racing practices.

5. THE KEY TO THE LOCK

The arrow is in the upper right corner.

6. RED HOT JAZZ

The trombone player's socks are red.

7. WHAT A GEM

There was a one-in-10,000 chance of finding a pearl.

PART A: Answer on your Amadeus Notepad

1. "You've got trail mail!"

Check your MAIL from the home office, then find one of those two posters in the production house. What are its main points?

2. "Ahoj matey!"

TRAVEL to the Shipping Terminal and find the ship's captain. What does he say about shipping?

3. "Sing along"

TRAVEL to Lake Itasca and find the TV monitor in the log cabin. What is the moral of the song featured here?

4. "Full speed ahead"

TRAVEL to the St. Louis Visitors Center. Look through the steamboat book, then watch the steamboat MOVIE. Name one of the pitfalls associated with steamboats.

5. "The key to the lock"

TRAVEL to the Lock and Dam. Look at the MAP. Where is the arrow when you arrive?

6. "Red hot jazz"

TRAVEL to the French Quarter. Go to Preservation Hall and find the band. What color socks is the trombone player wearing?

7. "What a gem!"

TRAVEL to Fort Snelling. Go to the Historic Business room and find the Pearl Button book. What were the chances of finding a pearl?

PART B: Collect on your Amadeus Media Composer

1. Travel to Cahokia Mounds.

Record VIDEO on top of Monks Mound.

2. Travel to the Twin Cities Visitors Center.

Use your CAMERA to take a picture of St. Anthony Falls.

3. Travel to Mark Twain Cave.

Meet Melissa your tour guide. Take the audio tour and RECORD a segment.

4. Travel to the Old Courthouse.

Use your CAMERA to take a photo of Trial Room #4.

ASSIGNMENTS

A River for Commerce
A Visit with One of the Greats
Amazing Engineering
Barges, Trucks, and Trains
Cahokia Mounds
Civil War Along the Riverbank
Design and Display for the Production House
Endangered Species
Environmental Awareness Campaign
Environmental Demands
Find a Destination
Flyways are for the Birds!
The Lock and Dam System
Mississippi Photo Essay
Mississippi Vacation Spot
Novel Idea
Sounds Traveling the River
Thinking Like a Geographer
Traveling Down and Up the River
Urban Renewal